

Audiologist

Avenir Hearing, Moncton New Brunswick

Position Available:

Audiologist, Full-time (1 Year Contract, Maternity Leave Cover)

Avenir hearing is currently seeking a dynamic, energetic, and compassionate individual to join their team as an Audiologist to cover a 1-year maternity leave with a possibility for contract extension.

This position offers a competitive full-time salary and benefits.

Job Description:

The Audiologist will be responsible for assessing, diagnosing and administering diagnostic audiological tests to patients from all walks of life. At Avenir we believe in educating and empowering patients and are dedicated to providing a wide range of treatment options to fit their needs and lifestyle.

The Audiologist will also administer, fit and program hearing aids, to their patients. This individual must be positive, compassionate and have a professional attitude. The ideal team member will work well independently and as a member of the hearing health team.

Experience/Skill:

- Masters degree in audiology or certification as a hearing health professional
- Experience working directly with patients in a clinical setting
- Dedication to patient education and compassion
- Ability to work with new and emerging technologies
- Ability to communicate in both French and English would be considered an asset

About Avenir Hearing:

Avenir Hearing is a group of 9 comprehensive hearing clinics that provides expert audiological care and supportive services for people affected by hearing loss in New Brunswick. Avenir Hearing operates under the single purpose of educating and empowering people to get back more than what they have lost, not just with her hearing but in their lives. By taking a patient-first approach, Avenir is a hearing healthcare clinic that is like no other.

Website: www.avenirhearing.ca

Facebook: AudiologieAvenirHearing