

Audiologist

Fraser Health is an equal opportunity employer that values diversity in the workplace. We currently have an exciting one year full-time opportunity for an Audiologist in our Public Health Department located in Burnaby, Maple Ridge/Pitt Meadows, British Columbia. New grads are welcome to apply too!

Build on your education & career experience as you:

- Perform audiological assessments - on a referral basis - for infants, preschool and school age children with suspected hearing disorders and/or related disorders.
- Identify, assess, diagnose and provide rehabilitative treatment to clients with hearing disorders.
- Perform follow-up testing and adapt assessment and testing procedures to accommodate clients of different ages and clients with special needs such as the physically, mentally and/or multiple disabled.
- Evaluate, select, and fit hearing aids for clients, provide ongoing monitoring of hearing aids, and coordinate funding assistance for clients requiring hearing aids.
- Provide guidance to Audiometric Technicians by ensuring standards are met, are familiar with program policies and directives through a process of orientation, and by regular communication and updates.
- Provide input into the audiology program by analyzing priorities, recommending equipment acquisitions and replacements.
- Develop and maintain effective and efficient communication links with the community by liaising with colleagues, community agencies, schools, government and other health care providers.

To join our team, you have:

- Graduation from an approved school of Audiology.
- Current active registration with the College of Speech and Hearing Health Professionals of BC and certification in applicable advanced competency.
- Eligible for membership in the Canadian and/or BC Association of Speech/Language Pathology and Audiology (CASLPA and/or BCSLPA).
- Valid BC Drivers Licence and access to personal vehicle for business related purposes.

Work with an experienced and dedicated team and join our commitment to provide quality care to our clients/patients/residents. We invite you to find out why more than 95% of new employees recommend Fraser Health to their friends and family as a great place to work.
