

Overview:

We are excited to share this opportunity to participate in Volume 9 of the 2022 Canadian Audiologist advertising and advertorials. Canadian Audiologist is the most read hearing health care journal in Canada and is available on-line, and free of charge to all those interested in hearing health care matters.

The Journal includes regular columns and features including clinical, research, consumer, and industry topics on hearing health, technology, patient focused care, and vestibular health. Dr. Marshall Chasin (Editor-in-Chief) and Dr. Steve Aiken (Associate Editor) consistently attract industry leaders to write on fresh and hot topics. Weekly updates of news and events keep the site lively, so readers return often.

Distribution, Frequency, Target Audience and Technical Format of Publication:

This online journal is published 6 times a year and is available free of charge with regular announcements to Audiologists, Hearing Instrument Practitioners, Researchers, Educators and Otolaryngologists across Canada. References and links to the journal are made on the website and in the CAA weekly newsletter.
