The New Westminster NexGen Hearing is a modern, newly renovated clinic with state-of-the-art equipment located in the bustling Uptown area of New Westminster. We are a fun and friendly team, looking for another Audiologist to join us on a part time basis. If you are looking for a career opportunity where your employer values you and your desire for a healthy work-life balance, this is the position for you!

Who are you?

- Licensed to practice Audiology and dispense hearing aids in British Columbia.
- Someone who is positive, professional and a team player.
- Someone who loves Audiology and prides themselves on providing exceptional client care.
- Strong competency in the assessment, selection, fitting, verification, and validation of hearing aids.
- Interest in working alongside other experienced Audiologists & Hearing Care Professionals, sharing knowledge, and collaborating to trouble-shoot difficult cases.
- Someone who appreciates having autonomy to work with a variety of hearing aid manufacturers.

Why should you apply?

- We are offering a unique opportunity for a flexible work schedule tailored to your wants or needs.
 - Consider the opportunity to condense your work week or work hours that are different from the typical 9 to 5, Monday through Friday.
 - Able to offer flexible arrangement for working parent.

In addition, we offer:

- A competitive salary and compensation package
- Professional fee coverage
- Full health benefits coverage
- Continued education and team building activities
