

Opportunity awaits in London, ON!

Are you looking for a new opportunity in a fresh, fun environment with a high performing team?

Have you been waiting for a sign that it might be time for more?

This could be your sign, and Beck Hearing could be the place for you. We are currently looking for Audiologists with a passion for optimal client care to join our growing team. Beck Hearing has been helping London hear for over 55 years, but we're not your grandparents' hearing clinic. Unless we actually are, and in that case, your grandparents are very cool.

Our ideal candidate truly cares about people, their treatment outcomes, and their families. You enjoy being on a team, learning new skills and giving back to the community. You are detail-oriented, organized, and independent, and you are focused on personal and professional growth.

Qualifications we need you to have:

- M.Cl.Sc in Audiology
- CASLPO member in good standing
- ADP authorization
- Proficiency in use of clinic management software
- Substantial computer skills
- Excellent client care

Qualifications that give you an edge

- ASL fluency
- Experience in private practice
- Expertise in third party and insurance billing

What we offer

- Flexibility and respect for your life outside of work
- A warm and inclusive environment
- Competitive salary, commission, vacation, and benefits
- Opportunities for personal and professional growth
- Training, industry events, and professional development
