INVITATION

Dear Esteemed Colleagues,

Dr. Sam Daniel
CSO-HNS President

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the 79th Annual Meeting of the Canadian Society of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, taking place in Fredericton, New Brunswick in 2025. This year's theme, "From Heritage to Horizon: The Power of Coaching, Mentorship, and Connections," highlights our ongoing commitment to fostering growth, collaboration, and innovation within our community.

Fredericton, with its picturesque streets, rich culture, and welcoming hospitality, sets the perfect stage for an enriching and memorable experience. We are delighted to invite you to the Beaverbrook Art Gallery for our Welcoming Reception, and to join us for the President's Banquet, which will feature a lively traditional East Coast Kitchen Party.

Throughout the event, you'll have the opportunity to engage with world-renowned speakers, participate in interactive sessions, and explore new educational tracks and therapeutic experiences. The program is designed to offer you exciting opportunities for learning, connection, and personal growth.

We are excited to share this unique experience with you and look forward to connecting, learning, and building a brighter future together. Thank you for being part of this journey. We can't wait to see you there!

Warm Regards,

Dr. Sam Daniel

THE EXPERIENCE

FREDERICTON, NB

Fredericton, New Brunswick, offers a perfect blend of charm, natural beauty, and vibrant culture, making it an ideal host for our 79th Annual Meeting. As the provincial capital, its historic streets and stunning views along the St. John River create a picturesque backdrop for both professional and leisure activities. The city's welcoming atmosphere, dynamic arts scene, and mix of small-town warmth with big-city amenities provide a unique setting for building connections and exchanging ideas. Attendees are sure to have a memorable experience, with opportunities for both professional growth and personal exploration.

Social & Companion Programs

Dr. Greg Thompson, our Local Arrangements Chair, has thoughtfully curated a vibrant social & companion program to enhance your experience at the 79th Annual Meeting.

These events are aimed at helping you connect, unwind, and fully immerse yourself in the unique beauty and charm of Fredericton. We're thrilled to offer you these memorable experiences and look forward to making this weekend one that you'll treasure for years to come!

FORGING INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS

SFORL

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF OTOLARYNGOLOGY-
HEAD AND NECK SURGERY®

We are thrilled to announce a landmark collaboration for our society—the 79th Annual Meeting of the Canadian Society of Otolaryngology will be presented in partnership with our esteemed friends at the Société Française D’ORL from France and The American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery from the USA.

This year's meeting promises to be an unprecedented gathering of thoughtful leaders and innovators from Canada, France, and around the world.

Prepare to engage in a dynamic environment focused on collaboration and knowledge-sharing. Our program features leading experts, inspiring keynote speakers, workshops, and interactive panel discussions on the latest research and advancements in otolaryngology. A special 2.5-day track will also be provided by our French counterpart.

This historic collaboration will enhance our understanding of the specialty, foster international partnerships, and inspire new strategies in clinical practice. Join us to build connections and advance our shared mission of improving patient outcomes worldwide.

WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND

The 79th Annual Meeting presents an invaluable opportunity for networking, thought-provoking discussions, career advancement, professional development, educational growth, and the cultivation of lasting connections.
